

LOCAL BRIEF

SENIOR GAMES

Area athletes earn medals at World Games in Utah

John Platero of Thousand Oaks earned four gold medals at the Huntsman World Senior Games in St. George, Utah.

Platero was victorious in the cycling hill climb, time trial, criterium and road race.

He added a silver medal in the mountain hill climb. Platero also earned two bronze medals in down hill and cross country cycling.

The competition features 9,700 50-and-over athletes from across the world competing in 25 sports from Oct. 6 through Saturday.

Ventura's Shari Nicholls captured four gold medals in the cycling hill climb, time trial, criterium and road race.

Westlake Village's Jack Cantz, Jim Jackson and Jim Langley played for the silver medal Base Hawgs softball team.

Bill Trembly and Tad Ludes of Ventura each brought home a bronze medal in softball.

Information: <http://www.seniorgames.net>.